

March 2010 Metal Treating Institute Midwest Chapter Meeting

March 17, 2010
Vista Hotel and Conference Center
Gurnee, Illinois

Staying Lean in a Growing Economy
Presented by Larry Rubrich, WCM Associates

Now that we have reached the bottom of the economy and heat treaters have become leaner than ever, the bigger challenge is how do you remain lean as your sales begin to grow? In this very informative session, Larry Rubrich will share with you the keys to an effective implementation of a lean manufacturing model that drives more profits to your bottom line. WCM Associates specializes in helping manufacturing companies compete globally through an effective lean manufacturing business model.

Obtaining Greatness in Management
Presented by Kenn Kington

In all great leaders and managers, there are common traits they all share. Kenn Kington, speaker at the 2008 Midwest Meeting, will return to share his presentation on the common traits that all great leaders share. In Kenn's travels, he has had the opportunity to meet and learn from numerous sporting and business people who have achieved greatness. This is a presentation you will want any manager who has a significant impact on your company to see.
